1.—The highest bidder to be the buyer; and in case any dispute shall arise, the lots so in dispute may be immediately put up again and re-sold, at the discretion of the Auctioneer, or the Auctioneer may determine whose bidding he will accept, or may decline any bidding.

2.—No person to advance less than 5 per cent. on the previous bidding, unless otherwise determined by the Auctioneer, nor retract any bidding.

3.—The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and pay a deposit of 25 per cent., at the fall of the hammer, if required (in default of which the lot may be immediately put up again and re-sold), such deposit to be applicable to any lot or all lots purchased, and the balance of the purchase money on or before the delivery of the lots. In cases where one buyer purchases more than one lot, the whole of the account of the lots purchased is to be paid before any one lot is delivered.

4.—The items comprised in this Catalogue are believed to be correctly described, and no allowance or compensation whatever shall in any case be made or claimed for wrong description or otherwise, but the several lots shall be taken by the purchasers with all faults and errors of description, if any.

5.—The lots to be at the purchaser's risk from the fall of the hammer, and removed at the purchaser's expense by a time to be named at the Sale.

6.—Inasmuch as the Auctioneers act only as agents for the Vendor, they will not be considered personally responsible for any default on the part of either Purchaser or Vendor.

7.—To avoid mistakes, no lot must on any account whatever be taken away until delivered by the person who will attend for that purpose, neither can any lot be delivered during the hours of Sale.

8.—On failure of complying with the above conditions, the money so deposited in part payment to be forfeited; the lots uncleared within the time above-mentioned may be re-sold, either by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any) by such second sale, together with all charges attending the same, to be made good by the defaulter at this Sale.

The above Conditions will be strictly adhered to.
